

Did the record record its data successfully?

- Failure
  - Provides the user with an error message stating that the system was unable to record the data
  - File is of the wrong type
- Success
  - Tells user that the record was recorded successfully in our system

Did the record scan the PDF file successfully?

- Failure
  - Provides an error message that the scanned file wasn't able to be scanned.
- Success
  - Tells the user that the file is successfully scanned.

Was the scanned file a PDF?

- Failure
  - Provides an error message to the user that the file format is not supported.
- Successful
  - Tells the user that the file is successfully scanned.

Was all the information filled out correctly?

- Failure
  - If the system is unable to read the information or the information was left blank on the form provide the user with a prompt to enter that information in
- Success
  - Tells user that the record was recorded successfully in our system